DEATH PENALTYBut New York Appeals Court Gives Becker New Trial.

SAYS JUSTICE GOFF ERRED

Opinion Declares Many of Trial Court's Rulings Were Wrong and That His Attitude Appeared Prejudicial Toward Defendant—Many Witnesses Were of Low Class and Becker Was Entitled to Fairer Treatment.**
New York, Feb. 25.—Charles W. Becker is entitled to a new trial, but it seems probable that he will go free without facing a second ordeal. District Attorney Charles S. Whitman believes that under the prevailing opinion handed down by the court conviction a second time will be impossible.**
Albany, N. Y., Feb. 25.—The conviction of Charles W. Becker, a former New York police lieutenant, of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was reversed and the conviction of the four gunmen for the same crime was affirmed by the court of appeals.Justice Goff, the court held, erred in many of his rulings at Becker's trial and appeared to be prejudicial in his attitude toward the defendant. The reversal was based solely on these grounds. No attempt was made by the court to say whether the weight of evidence against Becker was sufficient to warrant his conviction.It was pointed out, however, that the testimony against him was given by witnesses of low class and as much of it was open to doubt, he, therefore, was entitled to a fairer trial than he received.All of the seven members of the court, except Judge Werner, who acted as presiding judge when the appeal was argued, concurred in the prevailing Becker opinion, which was written by Judge Hisecock. In a dissenting opinion Judge Werner said in the main contents of the state had been proved amply to warrant conviction.

Status of Sam Schepps.

The much mooted question as to the status of Sam Schepps, whom the jury in the Becker case decided was not an accomplice to the crime, still is unsettled. The prevailing opinion merely said that there was doubt in the minds of some of the court as to the propriety of excluding Schepps as an accomplice.The decision in the case of the four gunmen, "Gyp the Blood," "Whitey Lewis," "Dago Frank" and "Lefty Louie," was unanimous. They had averred that the evidence against them was insufficient to warrant conviction and also that the court had erred in handling their cases, but these contentions were held by the court to be groundless.The date for the execution of the gunmen will be fixed by the court within a few days. The death warrants are in the clerk's office ready for the signatures of the judges when they decide when the electrocutions shall take place.The law provides that the date of execution shall not be deferred more than six weeks after the judgment of conviction has been announced. The court of appeals, however, usually allows five weeks to elapse. If precedent is followed the gunmen will be electrocuted during the latter part of March.The court said that it was impossible in an opinion to portray the unfavorable atmosphere that existed at the time of the trial, but pointed out some of the rulings of Justice Goff, which were held to have prejudiced the defendant's case.

WARDEN NOTIFIES GUNMEN

Four Condemned Wretches Hear Bad News Calmly.Ossining, N. Y., Feb. 25.—"It's a long lane that has no turning," Charles Becker said in the "death house" of Sing Sing prison when he received the news of the court's decision.The four gunmen, Gyp the Blood, Whitey Lewis, Dago Frank Cirofici and Lefty Louie Rosenberg, were notified that their conviction had been affirmed. The warden went to their cells and said:"I am sorry, boys. The court has turned down your application for a new trial.""That's all right, warden," said Lefty Louie, "we know the job is no clinch for you."Dago Frank said:
"God's will be done."

Been Victim of Beggar.Chicago, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Elizabeth

Former New York Police Officer Gets New Trial.

MRS. BECKER VERY HAPPY

Feels Sure Husband Will Never Be Tried Again.New York, Feb. 25.—"I am the happiest woman in the world," Mrs.
Becker declared, when she was informed of the reversal by Attorney Shay. Her face was wreathed in smiles, although her mother had just died.On hearing of the decision Mrs.
Becker rushed to the office of her husband's attorney, which was crowded with men. Her eyes fell upon Shay and she ran through two rooms to reach him, throwing her arms around his neck and kissing him.She said she was sure her husband never will be tried again.BERRY LAYS BLAME ON MONROE CAPTAINNantucket Skipper Says He Took All Precautions.Philadelphia, Feb. 25.—Captain Osmyn Berry of the steamship Nantucket, charged with negligence in connection with the collision with the steamship Monroe, which cost forty-one lives, testified before the local steamboat inspectors that he took every precaution to avoid the collision and that if Captain E. E. Johnson of the Monroe had done anything else than the one thing he actually did do the disaster would not have occurred.Captain Berry testified that when he saw the Monroe's lights he turned his ship hard to starboard. He said he did not change speed, because when the Monroe blew two blasts on her whistle he took it to mean, under the rules governing ships in a fog, the Monroe had stopped.Captain Johnson, in his testimony, said that when he sounded his whistle twice he meant to convey the information that he was directing his course to port. This is a clear weather signal.Captain Johnson said that he was acting under the rules which permitted vessels to depart from the rules to avoid immediate danger.

ILTIED LOVER SLAYS WOMAN

Tacoma Man Follows Bridal Party to California.San Francisco, Feb. 25.—Disappointed in love Abraham Pepper of Tacoma, Wash., called Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, his former sweetheart and a bride of a week, into the hall of her hotel here where she was spending her honeymoon, shot her dead at her husband's feet and then shot himself.With a bullet in his head Pepper was rushed to the Central Emergency hospital, where his chance for recovery is said to be slight.Pepper and F. L. Johnson, manager of a Tacoma music store, were rivals for the hand of Miss Dorothy Danhauser. Pepper had kept company with the young woman for five years.
But Johnson was successful and a week ago he and his bride left Tacoma for a honeymoon in California.Pepper followed and called at Johnson's room. Mrs. Johnson opened the door and Pepper fired. As the woman crumpled to the floor without a word and while the husband was rushing toward her assailant Pepper shot himself.

Eighteen Financial Institutions Will

by treasury officials showed 7,465 national banks have applied for membership in the federal reserve system, that eighteen banks have notified the organization committee that they will not apply and ten have not been heard from.The capital of the banks applying amounts to $1,054,533,554, which is 99.75 per cent of the capital of all national banks in the country. The capital of banks not accepting is placed at $1,999,000 and that of the ten not heard from at $470,000.ALIEN BILL IS

RESTRICTION ULTIMATE AIM

New Measure Would Increase Supply of Sea Food as a Means of Reducing the Cost of Living—Bounty to Fishermen For Predatory Animals—Canal Symbolic of Universal Peace.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Feb. 25.—[Special.]— Neither party has made political capital out of the immigration bill. Men on both sides of the political aisle favor and oppose the literacy test, which is about all there is to the immigration measure. At the same time the immigration bill may figure in politics, particularly if President Wilson should follow the course of President Taft and veto it on the same grounds.Such an act will make a great many Democrats sore, because they have championed the literacy test of the immigration bill. Restriction is what is aimed at, and no other feasible method has been found to reduce immigration.
If it were not for the fact that the United States is in no position to discriminate among the nations there is no doubt that congress would pass a law shutting out certain immigrants from southern Europe and other lands and allow those of northern Europe to enter. As this law cannot be passed on account of the international complications which would ensue, the literacy test has been adopted as the means of restriction.

Fish For Food.

As a means toward reducing the cost of living, or to increase the supply of sea food, Congressman Donovan of Connecticut has introduced a bill which would tend to increase the supply of food fish by offering a bounty on small sharks, commonly called dog-fish. It has been the custom for predatory animals both large and small.
Western members have frequently favored bills providing a national bounty for animals which destroy stock and crops. Donovan's proposition is to give a bounty to fishermen between Eastport, Me., and Cape Hatteras, North Carolina. If he would extend his bill to the entire coast line and then combine with western men he might get a joint measure giving bounties to those who catch predatory fish and predatory animals. A great many men in and out of congress agree with Donovan that something ought to be done to preserve the sea food of the waters adjacent to the United States.

"Countercheck Quarrelsome."

Like Shakespeare's clown, congressmen rarely go to the point of conflict, but they venture through the various stages of a quarrel, as described by the immortal bard. Congressman Thompson of Oklahoma was making a speech when Minority Leader Mann said, "That statement is incorrect.""That is your statement about it. I deny it.""The gentleman is talking wildly, as usual," said Mann."The gentleman is talking inaccurately, as usual," said Thompson.And, as Shakespeare says, "So they measured swords and parted."

Barthold's Latest.

Congressman Barthold of Missouri, who is known as one of the great peace advocates and is also vigorous in the support of many other public matters, proposes to have Esperanto made a part of the regular course of study in the public schools of Washington. Poor old national capital! The public schools of the city have had to undergo a great many fads and fancies and experiments and have suffered accordingly.

Symbolic of Universal Peace.

Senator Newlands of Nevada has introduced a bill appropriating half a million dollars to erect at the Panama canal a statue which shall be symbolic of universal peace. As the canal was built by the United States primarily for commercial purposes, this is a good idea. In reality the canal may be used for war purposes, and the United States intends to make it a part of the national defense.Of course there is going to be a big monument or statue erected at some point on the canal where everybody passing through will see it, but whose will be the important figure to crown this monument? Harkening back, somebody will discover that one T.
Roosevelt took certain steps which made the canal possible at a time when the Colombian government was blocking it.

An Interesting Bill.

Congressman Smith of Maryland has introduced what may be called an interesting bill. In the preamble it states that the Federal government has taken for the United States Naval academy at Annapolis grounds in the city limits that would be assessed at a million dollars and then it proposes that the federal government shall pay to the city "a sum equal to the taxes on that valuation." There is scarcely a city on the seacoast of the United States that would not provide land for the Naval academy if they could get the institution located there. It was generally supposed that the academy was an asset to Annapolis, just as being the capital of the state is an asset.

ton has 132,000,000 square feet of surface.

SENATOR NORRIS.

Says $200,000,000 Has Been Stolen From New Haven Line.

CAUSES UPROAR IN SENATE

Norris' Assertion Concerning New Haven Railway.Washington, Feb. 25.—Charges by Senator Norris that some one has stolen $200,000,000 from the stockholders of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad precipitated a hot discussion in the senate, several of the New England senators insisting that Senator Norris was guilty of loose and unwarranted language.
Senator Norris retracted nothing, however, insisting that his statements were warranted and the adoption of his resolution, under debate, would have a salutary effect.The resolution would direct the attorney general to inform the senate if he is negotiating in regard to the reorganization of the New Haven system and if so to give to the senate certain details.CLAIMS AUTO CLUBS MAINTAIN LOBBIESMissouri Representative Makes Caustic Comment.Washington, Feb. 25.—Transcontental highways proposed by the American Automobile association were characterized as "peacock lanes over which the members of this high browed, joy riding association may strut," by Representative Shackelford of Missouri, attacking what he called the "editorial cannery" maintained by the organization to promote the measures it favored.With funds the association collected from its 451 subordinate automobile clubs and the like Mr. Shackelford declared a "nervous lobby" is maintained in Washington and the "all essential long green" is collected to fight the re-election of opponents of motor road bills. He read a letter from the president of the association to a member in Kansas City, Mo., urging that support be withdrawn from the Shackelford $25,000,000 good roads bill now before the senate, having passed the house. The measure provides for dirt roads in rural free delivery districts.Immediate investigation of Representative Shackelford's assertions was proposed by Representative Borland of Missouri.

GOETHALS OUTLINES PLANS

Discusses With President Arrangements for Government of Zone.Washington, Feb. 25.—President Wilson received from Colonel George W. Goethals a complete review of plans for the organization of a permanent government in the Panama canal zone, which comes into existence April 1, with Colonel Goethals as first governor. The meeting of the officials in the White House was the first since Colonel Goethals' appointment as governor.Problems touching upon the organization of the zone government which have not yet been solved and details of the preparations being rushed for the opening of the canal were reviewed at length. The president was given to understand the canal would be ready for commerce by July.

here. Meola had been in the iron district several days hiring men for one of the copper companies in the district, where the strike of the Western Federation of Miners prevails.At the time of the shooting Meola was accompanied by Attillio Galea, said to be an organizer for the Western Federation of Miners. When a secluded spot was reached Meola was struck on the head with a blunt instrument and severely injured by Scolari, it is alleged.Meola fired two shots at Scolari, he said, one taking effect in the arm and the second in the chest. Galea

VOTE AT CHICAGO.Chicago, Feb. 25.—Fifty thousand women voted in the primary election here. It was their first chance to express themselves at the polls since the legislature granted them the right of suffrage, but many who were registered refrained from voting to avoid allying themselves with a political party.The eight women candidates for aldermanic nominations were only partly successful. In some cases their male opponents received the votes of more women than did the female candidates.

Children's Favorite Toys.

A hundred and thirty-two schoolboys of Paris and seventy-two girls were in-the way of toys. Among the former thirty-one voted for a railway train, twenty-three for tin soldiers, ten for steam engines, nine for building bricks and eight for toy typewriters and mechanical horses. Forty girls—a solid majority—declared without hesitation that a doll was superior to any other implement of recreation. The super-chick seems, happily, a long way off.—

TWELVE HUNDRED PRESENT

General Sentiment Prevails at Gathering That the Party's Candidates Have a Fighting Chance in Next State Campaign—Central Committee Takes Steps to Promote Organization.Minneapolis, Feb. 25.—Twelve hundred Minnesota Democrats in session at the West hotel went home firmly convinced that they have a great fighting chance in the next campaign. The Democrats of the state have held no such meeting since John Lind's famous Philippine speech in 1900.Champ Clark in a telegram to the meeting spoke of "The Militant Democracy of Minnesota" and the few Republican spectators admitted that it had been a long time since the party in Minnesota has looked so thoroughly militant.It was evident from the spirit of the meeting and the speeches made that the Democrats have taken heart from the success and popularity of President Wilson.Various threatened storms did not break and predicted ructions did not materialize. The one big fight ended so decisively and apparently left so little bitterness that the banquet was all that a party love feast should be.
Hardly a Democrat of prominence in Minnesota was absent, the notable exception being Daniel W. Lawler of St. Paul.The two big facts apparently shown by the gathering were the continued ascendancy of William Jennings Bryan as the idol of Minnesota Democrats and the dominance of National Committeeman F. B. Lynch so far as the state committee is concerned.

Applause Greets Bryan's Name.

Not even Woodrow Wilson's name drew the wild applause that greeted Bryan's every time it was mentioned.
Bryan's picture on the screen always brought a tremendous ovation.The banquet was an old fashioned, slashing anti-Republican gathering, in which the speakers took mighty wallops at the "wickedness" of Republicans and all their works and urged a "no compromise" fight all along the line.There were cartoons representing Governor Eberhart singing his latest song and representing the Democratic donkey landing his hind heels on the governor's anatomy.From a political standpoint the three-hour session of the state central committee was most important. The net result of the gathering was to show the so called Lynch crowd firmly in the saddle.The committee kept religiously away from even a hint of slatmaking and no man's candidacy was indirectly mentioned.F. A. Pike of St. Paul, Z. H. Austin of Minneapolis and Frank A. Day of Fairmont led a forlorn hope fight against the plans of the committee and were beaten overwhelmingly, the vote taken being 65 to 5.

Only One Brief Contest.

This fight came on the proposition first advanced by Chairman O'Brien that some method be devised for perfecting county and precinct organization throughout the state—a thing which under the new law cannot be done by county candidates as in former times.It finally was voted to call county mass meetings in all counties to name county committees and elect delegates to a state mass meeting to name a state organization.Judge M. C. Tift of Glencoe was toastmaster at the banquet and read telegrams of congratulations from President Wilson, Speaker Clark, National Chairman W. F. McCombs, Congressman W. S. Hammond, Congressman Oscar Underwood and others.John Walsh of Ashland, Wis., was introduced as "the next governor of Wisconsin."C. C. Daniels of North Carolina, a brother of Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels, was the chief speaker at the banquet and made such a bit that when he wanted to stop the crowd begged him to keep on. He ridiculed the Bull Moose party.Fred B. Lynch, Albert Pfander of New Ulm, Senator T. E. Cashman of Owatonna, J. M. Freeman of Olivia and Alfred Jaques of Duluth spoke briefly.REDFIELD PREDICTS

"A dead man comes to life and dies" reads the headlines. What's the use.

Under the commission form of government at St. Cloud according to a report made by the commission, it has cost during the year to run the city affairs $5.41 for each individual, based on a population of 13,000, the receipts per capita being $7.97.

You can't lose Mary, even our democratic brethren made a place for her on their program at their "get together" dinner. If the same cause of female suffrage wins out in Minnesota Mary McFadden will be entitled to a front seat on the band wagon, she's some driver.

Capt. Joseph Sellwood, millionaire banker and mine owner, is dead at Duluth of Bright's disease. Capt. Sellwood was well known in northern Minnesota and in fact throughout the northwest, and he was a factor in the upbuilding of the city which has been his home for the past 25 years.

The territory of the old Yankton Indian reservation in South Dakota, comprising 400,000 acres and which has recently been opened for settlement, is within the dry zone according to a decision of the supreme court. The "dry" agreement affecting Indian lands was upheld in the conviction of a druggist for selling liquors in his place of business.

vote campaign to get at public sentiment. The idea is original and good, especially as so far no one in that district has expressed a desire to serve the public at the sacrifice of their private interests.

And now comes the news that Moses Clapp has got in wrong with the anti-suffragists by asserting at a Cairo, Ill., speech that some very questionable characters are invited to "sign up" with them. The women have challenged the senator to substantiate his statement and he says he will not accept as the women know the people he named are opposed to the movement. The senator evidently does not propose to throw his hat into the ring filled with women and take a chance on getting away with the bacon.

THE LEGISLATIVE FIELD

The election of a legislative ticket in this district, composed of Crow Wing and Morrison counties, is being discussed quite freely by the public as the time nears when filings will necessarily have to be made by those who desire to serve the people in the capacity of law makers. At the last session the law governing the number of representatives from this district was changed and at the coming election three members of the house and one member of the senate will have to be chosen. Each county will have a representative who will be voted for in the respective county only, one representative at large who will be voted for in both counties, and the senator will also be voted on by the two counties. Under the law as it now stands party designation is eliminated, and filings are made simply as individuals and not as the representative of any party and the names will go on the ballot, and anyone who has the price and is a citizen can come before the people as a suppliant for votes for these positions. Under the old caucus system the representatives of the different political parties called the people together and determined who should represent them as a party candidate at the election, this law being succeeded by that which provided for the filing of candidates designating their political faith, and in both cases the political affiliation was made known to the voters on the ballots. Today the non-partisan ballot is provided and the voters are asked to nominate and elect men whom they think will make the best servants of the people regardless of their political affiliation, and it is the first trial of the law for members of the legislature. The two candidates having the highest number of votes in each instance, that is the candidates for representative in each county, the representative at large and the senator, in the case of this district, will be the nominees of the primary election and their names will be placed on the general election ballot for the voters to select from when casting their vote.

The only filing up to the present time is that of Geo. H. Gardner for the senate, but there are other gentlemen who are looking the field over with an idea of obtaining public sentiment to guide them in their actions. Judge W. A. Fleming will probably file as a candidate for the house from Crow Wing county, although he has not fully made up his mind excepting that he will be a candidate for one of the legislative positions. A. M. Opsahl has been active, at least by representatives, in feeling the public pulse on the senatorial question. Ole Erickson is said also to have aspirations in the senatorial matter and is looking the field over. C. W. Bouck, one of the present representatives and who hails from Morrison county, will be a candidate again and it is said he will file for senator when the time arrives. Mr. Bouck has looked the situation over in this county. Senator C. D. Johnson, will not be adverse to another term at the state capitol, according to close friends. L. D. Brown of Little Falls, also has his ear to the ground and it is generally understood that he will file for one of the legislative positions. Representative Vasily will probably become a candidate for reelection if the pressure of his home county is sufficiently strong, and in that event he will probably be a candidate for Morrison county representative. It is quite likely that there are other gentlemen who are waiting the filing of other candidates to determine their action along this line, and it may develop some changes in the line up as to which position those mentioned above may finally file for, as a promising field for a county position on the legislative ticket would be more enticing than an over crowded field for a senatorial or "at large" candidate for the house. In any event the contest will be an interesting one, judging from the interest being taken and the number who have announced their determination to get into the fight.

INCOME TAX REPORTS DUE

Every Person and Corporation Earning $2,500 or More Must Report March 1

OR SUFFER SEVERE PENALTY

Failure to Receive Blanks Does Not Excuse, as Revenue Officer Will Furnish Them

The new federal income tax law is strict in its provisions and they will be enforced to the letter, and one of the important provisions is that all returns must be made to the office of the collector of internal revenue not later than March 1st, which in this case is E. J. Lynch, St. Paul, Minn. As March 1st falls on Sunday returns will be received on Monday following.

All corporations, regardless of how organized, must make returns, even though there are no taxable incomes. As this is the first year of the new law, the government wants returns from all corporations.

Every individual having an income of $2,500 or more for the 10-month period from March 1 to Dec. 31, 1913, must file returns. Failure to receive blanks does not excuse them. They can have blanks by calling the revenue office or by dropping a card.

The law fixes the minimum at $3,000, but for the present assessment it was made $2,500, because the law had been in operation only 10 months in 1913.

The salaries of state employees or of any political subdivision of the state, are exempt from the law. However, if any of the state officers or employees has a taxable income he is required to make returns.

The penalty for failing to make returns is a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000.

A Resident of Brainerd Shows the Way

There's one effective way to relieve it; But they seldom reach the cause. Backache is cause to suspect the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys. Brainerd people back them up. Read a case of it.

J. C. Beck, carpenter, 809 Tenth St. S., Brainerd, Minn., says: "Some time ago I had a bad attack of kidney complaint. I couldn't stoop without pain, and was hardly able to do any work at all. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon fixed me up all right so that I was able to work as usual. I haven't been obliged to take any kidney medicine I got Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn's drug store, and if I ever needed a kidney medicine again, I would certainly take them."

TO BID ON THE BRIDGE FILL

Alderman John Moberg, Railway Contractor of Bemidji Examines Proposed Job

HAS WORKED FOR THE SOO LINE

Said Brainerd Has a Reputation for Enterprise and Activity and Voices Sentiments

Alderman John Moberg, of Bemidji, a railway contractor, was in the city Tuesday and examined the Northeast Brainerd fill proposition with a view of bidding on the same.

Mr. Moberg has had considerable experience in railway grading, filling and other work. He built the Soo line extension known as the Ambrose extension in the northwest corner of North Dakota in Divide county. His home is at Bemidji. This winter he is engaged in extensive logging operations north of Bena.

"I think it may be hard to haul dirt over the sink hole," said Mr. Moberg in speaking of the proposition. Otherwise he thought the project a most feasible one.

While in the city he examined Brainerd and its resources and accordingly was enthusiastic about the city's present prospects. He was surprised to see mining operations carried on within the very city limits. He said the street car line of the Minnesota Central Railway company would further serve to boost the city and the proposed interurban would serve Brainerd well and further increase its commercial supremacy on the range.

At Bemidji they often heard reports that the Soo was to build into Brainerd, and such a thing was expressly possible as the road was now only eight miles from Brainerd, and in passing the balance of the route would tap large ore bodies soon to be shipped.

Bemidji, he said, remained wet by 122 votes. In leaving the Columbia theatre, Alderman Moberg complimented the show by saying its music and pictures were of the best, and he was especially pleased with the courteous attention of the Columbia ushers who helped him on with his overcoat.

CRITICIZES M. & I.

The "Pequotian" of February 19 Slightly Refers to Speed of Trains on Line

The "Pequotian" of February 19, published at Pequot, thus refers slightly to the speed of trains on the M. & I. railway:

A Brainerd attorney was recently asked to bring suit against the M. & I. railroad by a farmer who lost a hog which he claimed was killed by a passing train. The attorney refused to take the case on the grounds that the M. & I. trains couldn't run fast enough to catch a hog, and that the court would probably decide that the train had killed the animal in self defense.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Columbia

Mary Fuller and her all-star company played to a capacity house last night. The management feeling encouraged over its support have booked for the early part of March Mrs. Fiske, to appear in Tess of D'Urbervilles, her foremost success. The play is presented in five reels and lasts for one hour and a half. Daniel Frohman is the producer of this wonderful play. This drama is more widely known as "Tess," has been in greater demand by moving picture exhibitors than any other film ever made.

For today and tomorrow the "Wedding Gown" will hold forth at the Columbia. This film is an adaptation from one of Clyde Pitch's best sellers. On Friday and Saturday "Indian Blood," a stirring drama of the early days has been booked. Taking pictures and music combined every show you miss at the Columbia means a rare treat gone forever.

At the Grand

Tonight there is a three reel feature, "The Girl and the Tiger." This is without doubt one of the most sensational features ever produced.

"Reddy, the Mail Girl"

The play to be given this evening by the Applegate-Hugo repertoire company is entitled "Reddy, the Mail Girl." This is a comedy and the scene is laid in the east and the west showing by contrast a banker's home in the east and the free, untrammelled civilization of the west. There are excellent opportunities for acting in portraying the character of David Holt, a banker's clerk, who lives beyond his means and the role is very capably presented by J. R. Applegate.

The comedy role is in the hands of Chester Hugo and is that of a negro servant. Moses Levi is represented by Harry Hugo.

The specialties offered between acts will be by Miss Nellie Moore and Chester Hugo and are entirely new and most pleasing. The orchestra will be heard in new selections. This is the last night of the stock company and a good attendance is anticipated. The prices are the popular ones of 10c, 20c and 30c.

GRAVES GOES TO JACKSONVILLE

Young Chippewa Indian Pitcher from Walker Reservation to be Tried out by

THE PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

Has Contract for Six Months at $150 a Month—Hopes to Make Good in Higher Company

Tall and boyish looking, his face lit up with pride and expectation, young Joe Graves, of Walker, the Chippewa Indian pitcher, passed through Brainerd this afternoon on his way to the Philadelphia Athletics training camp in Jacksonville, Florida.

"I hope to make good," said Joe. "I know what this chance given to me by Connie Mack means. I am going to pitch just the best ball I can and will do everything I can for Connie Mack."

"My father played ball in Philadelphia and he and Ed. Rogers advised me to go to Connie Mack. He has given me a six months contract at $150 a month."

"I am grateful to the Brainerd Dispatch for the good words they said about me and I appreciate it very much," and young Graves waved his hand to his friends on the platform as the train sped on its way to St. Paul, the first stage of his journey to Florida.

"Will he make good?" Graves will try and by winning his spurs in higher company he will show that the Chippewas have the nerve, the determination and the backbone to win, and the race of which Bender is an honored member, will receive fresh laurels and honors from its youngest recruit, Joe Graves.

Shattered His Idol.

Swinburne's admiration for the scenery inspired the walk which every morning, wet or fine, he took across Putney common. It led also to visitors to see the poet walk.

One modest admirer, says the London Chronicle, traveled far to catch a glimpse of Swinburne in the flesh and, having read of the poet's habits, visited the hostelry at which he called each morning in passing. There sat the literary demigod reading the Pink 'Un, a flashy, low grade paper. But worse followed.

Said the pilgrim to the girl behind the bar, "I suppose you know that is Swinburne, the great poet?" Came the answer: "Yes; I've heard so. But he isn't much good to us. He only drinks beer."

The Spice of Teaching.

Wrong answers to questions at school are not productive of much pleasure to the pupil, but teachers get plenty of laughs out of them. Here is what one teacher has gleaned from a boy more remarkable for imagination than accuracy.

To a question in the geography class he volunteered this:

"Continents are things you make big maps out of; islands are things you make little maps out of."

And, in an endeavor to retrieve himself later in the history class, he announced:

"Hannibal was a man that ate human beings, especially Romans."—New York Times.

High Finance.

Some victims of the la grippe never fully recover the health of the lungs, and persistent coughing is weakening. The quick action of Foley's Honey and Tar makes it valuable in severe la grippe coughs. F. G. CITY HALL SUGGESTIONS

One of the Suggestions for the Incorporation of General or Special Features in Same

In response to an appeal for suggestions for the incorporation of general or special features in the city hall project, this writer says:

"While a great many suggestions have been made as to providing certain rooms for various purposes in the contemplated new city hall, I would like to call the attention of the city council to the fact, that the providing of an auditorium by the city of Minneapolis in their city hall for the free use of any meeting of a public nature has done more than any one thing to advertise Minneapolis as a great convention city, thereby bringing in thousands of strangers and their thousands of dollars every year. Understanding that a room of this kind has been mentioned and believing that it will do more to advertise the city of Brainerd than the actual building of the city hall itself, I trust that such a hall will be provided for in the plans of our new city building.

Respectfully submitted, A. L. HOFFMAN.

CRITICISM AND BOOSTING

Easy to do the First, But it Requires Some Real Ability to do Intelligent Boosting

It lies within the province of every man to hand out criticism. There is hardly anything in this universe which cannot be criticized. It requires no especial ability to find fault. Things would not be human if there were no flaws. There is no such thing as perfection on this earth. If we had perfection in our midst, some mortal would find it tiresome because it could not be improved and he would promptly register a kick on that account.

Boosting, on the other hand, requires real ability. It is that distinctive faculty of finding the good in people and things and their actions and in giving them publicity.

A booster is an optimist. He believes the world is a good place to live in, that things are growing better. He trusts his neighbor and his friend on general principles, believing that the policy of all people is to do good and to be good. The optimist carries his head high, he breathes deeply and he has the ideals which he hopes will come true.

The man who makes criticism his stock in trade has his head to the earth and makes great ado finding this thing and that thing which must be criticized, condemned and disrupted. Whole classes of people are condemned. No good is seen in the actions or policies of whole sections.

Destructive criticism never accomplishes much. It is the intelligent boosting which builds up communities, which causes men to band themselves together for the good of a community.

Many who make criticism of others their whole stock in trade are quite surprised when they find their whole program of life has but little constructive value. The perpetual critic even resents such a gentle criticism as this.

Successful Everywhere

People everywhere are talking of the quick and fine results Foley Kidney Pills give in backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles. You can not take them into your system without good results. That is because Foley Kidney Pills give to the kidneys and bladder just what nature calls for to heal these weakened and inactive organs. H. P. Dunn.—Adv. mwf Greedy Caterpillars.

"I have seen some record breaking beefsteak eaters," said the keeper in the Bronx Zoological park, "and I thought I had a fairly good idea of just how much an appetite could stand. But there are other astounding superlatives. The ravenous wolf, the starving boa constrictor and all the other star eaters must give way to the insignificant caterpillar.

"The millionaire who had the appetite of a caterpillar and indulged in it freely for any length of time would go broke in cash, for in a few months this amazing gastronomic freak usually devours 6,000 times its weight in food. And it never complains of indigestion."—New York Sun.

EX-BANDIT SEEKS TO BE GOVERNOR

Al Jennings Tells Why He Wants to Rule Oklahoma.

WOULD REFORM PRISONS.

Man Who Was a Train Robber Sympathizes With First Offenders—Explains Why He Quit Life of Crime and Scores Respected Rogues Less Crude Than He Was.

Al J. Jennings, ex-train robber and federal prisoner, who won the Democratic nomination for county attorney of Oklahoma county, Okla., in 1912, is about to announce his candidacy for the governorship of the state of Oklahoma.

"I am entering the race," said Mr. Jennings in New York recently, "as a Democrat. Many of my friends have urged me to seek an independent nomination, but I have always been a Democrat. My object is to clean up the party in Oklahoma. I intend to fight double dealing, political thieves, with whom no self respecting outlaw of former years can associate."

"All I want is to see absolutely honest men at the head of the government, and after I have announced my candidacy if some man whose integrity and uprightness are unquestioned becomes a candidate I shall withdraw and support him with all of my ability."

Why Jennings Reformed.

"Some people do not seem to be able to understand how an outlaw, an ex-train robber and federal prisoner can become sincerely law abiding and a reformer in politics, but the explanation is simple. I made a mistake and defied the law. I was caught and punished—kept five years in prison—and then saw how I had been wrong to become an enemy of society. I decided to reclaim my place in society and set about doing it. As soon as I became a free man, living in a free community, I began to appreciate the differences in lawbreaking and the consequences thereof, and that made me a political reformer."

"I had been a train robber, a crude, open defier of society, and I had been caught and punished. I saw all about me men who wore the best clothes and stood high in society robbing the people right and left and not getting caught or being punished. They were not as primitive as I had been in the method they chose. They did things in the dark and only appeared in the open when they had on their Sunday clothes, so to speak."

Mr. Jennings says he will carry on the same kind of aggressive, personal campaign for the gubernatorial nomination as he carried on for the county attorneyship. He claims he has no money behind him and will not be able to establish headquarters.

"I will stump the state," he said, "and speak from the street corners and halls wherever I can."

Mr. Jennings said that if he is elected governor he will make it his chief object to enforce the law without respect to persons, but that from lessons derived during his own prison experience he will also apply himself to prison reform in Oklahoma.

Pledges Aid to First Offenders.

"I favor the adoption of a reforme tory parole system," he said, "by which first offenders can be given a chance to redeem themselves. I think that a young man who is convicted for the first time should be allowed to stay at home and work under the watchful eye of the state instead of being locked up in a prison where, in all probability, he will be made a confirmed criminal. There will be no wholesale release of prisoners if I become governor, but I will exercise the power of pardon and parole with the view of reclaiming for society every man I can. As long as there is a chance of making a good citizen of a man we should try to do so."

Jennings was a train robber in Oklahoma and the southwest for several years before his final capture in 1897 and subsequent conviction in a federal court. He served a few years in the prison at Columbus, O., before being pardoned by President McKinley. His citizenship was later restored by President Roosevelt, and he began the practice of law in Oklahoma City. In 1912 he ran for the Democratic nomination as county attorney of Oklahoma county against six other candidates. Before the primaries five of the candidates withdrew to concentrate the vote against him, but in spite of this he obtained the nomination. At the general election he was defeated by a narrow margin by a Republican who was supported by both the Republican and Democratic organizations.

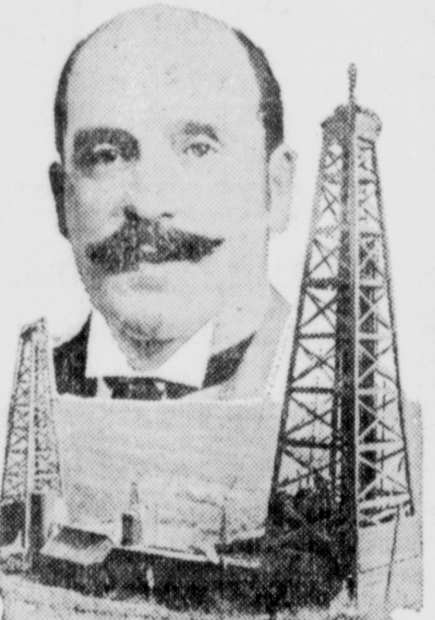

CHECK ON LORD COWDRAY.

He Denies Intention to Dispose of Mexican Oil Interests.

Lord Cowdray has recently denied a public statement to the effect that he was about to dispose of his Mexican oil interests to an American concern. He said:

"Neither my firm nor I have sold nor are we about to sell our Mexican oil interests to the Standard Oil company or any one else."

Lord Cowdray has been blocked in attempts to gain oil concessions in Colombia and also in Costa Rica. The congresses of both countries refused to ratify oil contracts which had been negotiated. These successive failures have raised the question whether an attempt will now be made to upset Lord Cowdray's oil concession in

LORD COWDRAY, THE ENGLISH OIL KING, AND MEXICAN OIL WELLS.

Ecudor, which gives his firm the right to exploit the whole country by sections.

Lord Murray of Ellbank, partner of Lord Cowdray in various enterprises, who has recently been in the United States, denied in an interview that the Pearson firm, of which Lord Cowdray is the head, is hostile to the whole to American interests in Mexico, Costa Rica and some of the South American land. This, he said, was not true, because the Pearsons had extensive business associations in the United States. Competition was to be expected, he said, as the legitimate procedure of rival business men. He further said that the public in England believed that the United States was disposed to exclude all European activities from countries within the sphere of the canal zone.

REDFIELD ON PROSPERITY.

Secretary of Commerce Makes Bright Forecast For Year.

In an article in the Chicago Tribune Secretary of Commerce Redfield forecasts prosperity for 1914 and scoffs at pessimistic predictions. He says in part:

"The facts are such as should fill us all with hope. There is little to justify either doubt for the present or fear for the future."

The crop of winter wheat already planted to mature next summer is not only in finer condition than a year ago, but is of much larger extent, promising well for the future if weather conditions prove favorable and certainly justifying no present anxiety.

Referring to American industries, he says, "One does not need to be worried by this cry of wolf, for the cry has been made before, and the wolf did not come."

Too Much For Him.

Smithson used to labor under the impression that he was a born humorist, but he has given up trying to be funny now.

He called one day on an old school friend and was shown into a room where his chum's sister was busy arranging a quantity of dried grass which she had collected.

"What a quantity of dried grass you have collected, Miss Ritchie," he said. Then his humor burst forth. "Nice room for a denkey to get into."

"Make yourself at home, Mr. Smithson," said the girl pleasantly.

When he arrived home all the humor was crushed out of him forever.—London Scraps.

"English as She Spoke."

In a select private school where the English spoken—even by the youngest—would delight Henry James, one of the fifth grade teachers chanced to meet one of her former pupils who had been promoted to a higher grade, and she said:

"How do you do, Harold? Are you getting on well?"

"Yep," answered Harold.

"My, Harold! Is that the way you are taught to speak?" And Harold most unconcernedly answered, "Nope!"—Exchange.

WHAT 1914 MAN WILL LOOK LIKE

Designers' Decree Is That His Clothes Fit Tight.

RADICAL CHANGES COMING

Even the Conventional Dress Suit is to Undergo Transformation—Overcoats For Next Fall Will Be Startling Horse Blanket Creations With Wild Designs.

Mere man is about to undergo a radical transformation in his style of clothes. It has all been arranged for by the National Association of Designers of men's wearing apparel. That body of sartorial experts in convention assembled at Baltimore this month, after due and weighty deliberation, arrived at some interesting conclusions.

The one conclusion of these arbiters of man's fashions which stands out above all others is that suits must be tight fitting. Just as little cloth as possible will be used to frame the manly figure. It is not exaggerating to say that the suits of mere man, 1914 model, will cling to his form like tights to the pony ballet.

Artificial Shoulders to Go.

"Clothes au naturel"—that's the final dictum of the designers. Away with padding that tricks the eye. A man to be in fashion will have to stand or fall in his little tight suit and the shoulders that nature has given him.

But there's one saving grace about the tight suits which the designers have decreed. The feelings of the tail, thin man and the short, fat man will be spared to the extent that he can choose quiet color effects and meet with fashion's demand in that respect; in fact, there is to be a decided leaning toward sober shades of cloth.

But the overcoats to be worn next fall will make up for the quiet tones of the suits. Wild designs are to run riot in overcoats in horse blanket effects and with batwing sleeves on the kimono order. They will have wide lapels extending away down the front and strap loops through which to thrust the arms.

In their determination to envelop man in the smallest possible amount of cloth the designers have even extended their activities to the sacred dress suit. That, too, has been abbreviated. It is short and form fitting. The designers have imposed an edging more than an inch wide on the lapel, practically dividing the lapel with a line of galune.

Here is the official rendering of the innovation: "Grosgrain facing an inch and a quarter wide, piped with three sixteenth inch silk galune." The buttons are of black polished ivory.

Another model has jet buttons with grosgrain facing on the lapel and edging of galune.

PROCRASTINATION.

When the Spartans seized upon Thebes they placed Archias over the garrison. Pelopidas and eleven others banded together to put Archias to the sword. A letter containing full details of the plot was given to the Spartan polemarch at the banquet table, but Archias thrust the letter under his cushion, saying, "Business tomorrow." But long ere that sun arose he was numbered with the dead.

Ericsson Brothers bakery has installed a new appliance known as a Read cake mixer operated by electricity. It is a three speed machine. A half a case of eggs may be beaten at one time. The slow speed mixer is used for dough mixing; the medium for cake, the high speed for eggs alone. There are seven different styles of beaters which may be attached. The machine is a novelty in this city and contributes to the cleanliness of the bakery and also serves to advertise the progressive spirit of Ericsson Brothers.

Aitkin is busy raising a class for the Princes of the Orient initiation to be held in Brainerd Friday evening, February 27, at the Citizens State bank hall. Secretary Wm. Nelson is being kept busy here receiving applications and what worries him is that the class of candidates may exceed 85 in number. This is the limit set because it is impossible to handle a larger class. J. P. Saunders, one of the main spokes in the wheels of Orientalism, is scurrying about and has a large number of applications. One year he brought in ten and every one of his candidates thanked him from the bottom of his heart for the great service to humanity which he had performed.

A Careful Talesman.

The district attorney in Chicago was somewhat taken aback one day by the answer he received from a prospective jurymen whom he was examining. The talesman was the owner of a garage.

"Do you know me or any of the lawyers in this case?" the attorney asked. "No," replied the talesman. "You don't know me or Judge Blank or Mr. Jones or Mr. Smith here?"

"No."

"None of us store machines at your garage?"

"Well, sir," said the talesman, "all I can answer is that none of you do it under the names you have given in court this morning."—Lippincott's.

Evasive.

"Would you love me just as much if I were a poor girl?"

"Every bit as much," he said, congratulating himself that she didn't ask him if he would still want to marry her.—Detroit Free Press.

IF CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Look Mother! If Tongue is Coated, Cleanse Little Bowels With "California Syrup of Figs"

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

IT'S A POOR ARGUMENT to say that if you save the premiums on fire insurance for a certain number of years you would have the face value of the policy.
